LONDON, SW7 5JB.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Thailand has recently instructed the Royal Thai Embassy to review the visa fees in order to reflect the effects of exchange rate fluctuation between the Thai Baht and the British Pound. As a result, the Royal Thai Embassy in London has learnt that the value of the British Pound from 2010-2011 in comparison with the value of the Thai Baht has been decreased from 2007-2009 approximately 30%.

In this connection, the Embassy will adjust all categories of visa fees in order to reflect the above-mentioned loss of exchange rate between the Thai baht and the British Pound which will be effective from 1st December 2011 accordingly:
